

CCFE Advisory 2008-42

December 17, 2008

Re: CFI Options – New Listings of 2013, 2014 and 2015 Contract Months

CCFE market users have requested that CCFE list options on the recently listed CFI 2013 – 2015 futures contract months. CCFE is announcing that effective Friday, December 19, 2008, it will list options on the CFI futures Jan 13, Dec 13, Dec 14 and Dec 15 contract months.

The strike price for options listings with expirations subsequent to December 2012 will be in $1.00 increments; the strike price for currently listed CFI option contracts with expirations through December 2012 will remain in $0.25 increments. Additionally, the Block Trade minimum size for option listings with expirations subsequent to December 2012 will be 10 contracts which correspond with these futures contract months' specifications. The contract specifications and the expiration calendar are available at: www.ccf.com/about_ccfe/products.html.
