

CCFE Advisory 2010-1

January 6, 2010

Re: IFEX Dec 2009 Contracts – Status and Early Expiration

In accordance with Chicago Climate Futures Exchange (CCFE) Rules, CCFE has determined that no Eligible Event that could constitute a Covered Event for a listed Event Claim for any Loss Trigger Level has occurred during the Contract Risk Period of any December 2009 contract in the IFEX suite of futures. Therefore, CCFE has elected to expire the following December 2009 futures contracts effective the close of business on Friday, January 8, 2010. The final settlement price on the index for all the following Loss Trigger Levels will be 0.00.

Contract	Event Claims	Loss Trigger Levels
U.S. Tropical Wind Events Dec 2009	All event claims	All trigger levels
Florida Tropical Wind Events Dec 2009	All event claims	All trigger levels
Gulf Coast Tropical Wind Events Dec 2009	All event claims	All trigger levels
Northeast Tropical Wind Events Dec 2009	All event claims	All trigger levels
Eastern Seaboard Tropical Wind Events Dec 2009	All event claims	All trigger levels
